Listeners' comments:

★★★★★

"Better than anything else I've listened to in a long time. Ellen's and C.L.'s rapport is wonderful, their approach--the topics, knowledge, sense of humor, and the way they dig into it all--so fun and informative!"

★★★★★

"An incredibly helpful and fun podcast. Combining science, art and eating really tasty fresh food...what could be better? C.L. and Ellen are excellent hosts, both have so much to share about growing, foraging, preparing, cooking and enjoying food/plants. For anyone interested in improving their garden, learning about growing or foraging, or just enjoying food and plants. Definitely check out Plantrama!"
